Frontend Developer

Lagos, Nigeria | github.com/theadusamuel | theadusamuel@gmail.com | +2348031522927

Self-taught front-end developer changing careers from data science to software development. I have experience developing websites and web apps as part of Bootcamp coursework and personal projects. I focus on writing accessible HTML, using modern CSS practices, and writing clean JavaScript. When writing JavaScript, I mostly use React. I'm based in Lagos, Nigeria, and I have experience working in remote teams.
